

MAKING CONNECTIONS

New Developments & Emerging Opportunities in Transportation Training Partnerships

Join other transportation industry leaders, practitioners and advocates to exchange ideas, share successes and learn about emerging best practices and new developments in transportation.

WEDNESDAY MARCH 17, 2010

Hilton Hotel—Washington DC/Silver Spring (Minutes outside of Washington, DC by Metro in Silver Spring, MD)

Keynote Program

Moving Forward in Transportation: Workforce Development in Reauthorization & Beyond

Remarks by Warren S. George, International President, Amalgamated Transit Union; William W. Millar, President, American Public Transportation Association; and James C. Little, International President, Transport Workers Union

Workshop and Discussion Topics

- Transportation & the Green Economy: Green Jobs, Smart Growth and Transit Oriented Development
- Improving Safety & Reducing Risk Through Training
- Mentoring: Adding Value to Training
- Putting Together Partnerships from the Ground Up: Keys to Success

Who Should Attend?

Leaders interested in transportation and/or training issues, including workforce and community development professionals, trainers, managers and union representatives. Students interested in transportation and workforce development are also welcome.

Registration Includes:

- Full day of programming, networking and speakers
- Continental breakfast and lunch
- Center publications on research, metrics and partnerships

Hotel Reservations:

$119/night - available through February 13
Hilton Washington DC/Silver Spring - 301.589.5200
8727 Colesville Rd. Silver Spring, MD 20910

Register Today!

Visit www.transportcenter.org or call 301.565.4713
Early Bird Registration: $70 / After February 13: $95